3D DESIGN LEARNING JOURNEY Is 10 hours enough to create my exam piece? Level 3 Courses Graphic Design Resistant Materials Design What experimentations can I demonstrate How can I use the skills I have that help develop my ideas? developed to support my career? 1 What quality Control measures will I How will I research my exam theme demonstrates as part of my products and record my ideas? construction? How do I know if the product I make is successful? Year 11 What techniques can I employ to develop a personal response for the presentation of my portfolio? What joining techniques will I use to make my final outcome? Why are primary and secondary sources of research important to my portfolio development? How can I use experimentation to refine my ideas and developments in 3D design? How can I explore all of the design possibilities for my project? Year 10 How can I use the work of others designers to develop my own creative design solutions? Speed Check - Data will be taken to see if you need a diversion to your journey or extra support on the road.